Alma Mater

Moonspell

Mother Tongue speaks to Me
In the strongest way I've ever seen
I know that she sees in Me
Her proudest child, her purest breed

She speaks to Me in colours That I can't really understand I only know that they are ours And to those I'll proudly bend

For I am your only child And you my dearest mystery From an ancient throne I defy the world To kneel before the Power within.

For I am your only child And you my dearest mystery World can't you see it? Am I alone in my belief?

Virando costas ao mundo Orgulhosamente sós Glória antiga, volta a nós!

ALMA MATER!

Breaking waves announce my Bride
It is the only way the Sea could sing
Legends of Lusitanian pride
He sings the words I cannot spring

At the Moon Mountain six wolves cry Your lost glory we'll regain or die

For I am her only child And she is my dearest mystery Pagan Gods in conspiracy For the sword of Tyranny

Mother Tongue has spoke to thee In the strongest way they've ever seen World can't you see? I am not alone in my belief.

ALMA MATER!

Virando costas ao Mundo Orgulhosamente sós Gloria Antiga, volta a nos!

ALMA MATER!

Mother Tongue has spoke to Me
In the strongest way I've ever seen
I know that she sees in Me
Her proudest child, her purest breed

She speaks to Me in colours
I can't really understand
I only know that they are ours
and to those I'll proudly bend

For I am her only child And she is my dearest mystery From an ancient throne I defy the world To kneel before the powers within.

For I am her only child And she is my dearest tragedy World can't you see it? I am not alone in my belief.

Virando costas ao Mundo Orgulhosamente sós

ALMA MATER!
