

Memento Mori

Moonspell

I am the moment, the soul
The moment that ends it all
I am the second, the will
The serpent, the one you last recall
The living pulse of nightmares
Is on my side
With the shadows I fade into you
A secret promise of leaving
Blanking your eyes
When you look for me try for once inside
In the sleep of cruelty
The old sounds of you and me
I am the moment, the soul
The moment that ends it all
I am the second, the will
The serpent, the one you last recall (You are lost)
The ones so long forgotten
Now at your side
Their spirits travel from me into you
A rush of waters then afterlife
The wind in the trees
Yours is the fight in this minute dark
I am the moment, the soul
The moment that ends it all
I am the second, the will
The serpent, the one you last...
In the sleep of cruelty
The old sounds of you and me
And for a moment it's gone
The beauty of it all
I am the second, the fall
The logic of it all
I am the moment, the soul
The moment that ends it all
I am the second, the will
The serpent, the one you last recall
