...of Dream and Drama (Midnight Ride)

Moonspell

You've no mother to feed you or to lick your so deep wounds nor Earth where to lay your timid crown You've suffered by your father and even the Moon lies to you When she shines...

The seduction of an altar

Is a weakness in her movements of Death

It is a mere vanity of Woman to delay her midnight ride

Suicide... Midnight ride...

Beautiful dagger you may now leave your case Wild red tears at the lady's hand Kissed were her breasts with your sharpened face Given is now what Love had taken death and Love, they together danced

Yes, the flames did smile to her
Invited her to their fiery peace
To a funebre dance around a bonfire
Where all Women are naked and alone
Immolating their pride
May they forever ride. Far, in a midnight crime.
Midnight Ride, Suicide, Midnight Ride...
