

Hiding from the sun

Morandi

Look at me now
What have you done?
I'm hiding from the sun
Away from this world,
Hotness and cold
The story of my life untold.

As my dream is getting over
Loneliness is taking me to
Places that I've never been before
Do you remember
How it used to be
The night of December
..it was you and me.

Look at me now
What have you done? I'm hiding from the sun
Away from this world, hotness and cold
The story of my life untold.

As my dream is getting over
Loneliness is taking me to
Places that I've never been before
Do you remember
How it used to be
The night of December
..it was you and me.
