Love is tickling

Friends I`ve lost So many lovers over years But my guitar So, it`s here with me I`ve been in love And i suffered just as much But my guitar Have always keepting touch

She`s tickling my fingers Asking me to dance And unconditionaly she`s been giving me Been giving me Romance so sweet and intense Lonely nights in the city of deny But then you offered me your smile

Close your eyes I will be your guy tonight And hold you close Just for a while Close your lips I will say the words for you My guitar will help me threw

You`re tickling my fingers Asking me to dance To put on the guitar And hold you by your pants But baby it depends Are you sweet and intense? It`s hard to choose Either way i`m gonna lose It hated being in my shoes

Hold my shoes I`m so broken deep inside Can barely walk But i`m doing it with pride I`ve said i`m loving you Baby it would be no lying But i`m afraid i`ve have to leave my shoes and my guitar outside It`s tickling inside me since you came along I opened up my heart cause baby we belong Now i`ve got you To hold, to touch and to love Oh, it`s clear You`re the sound i want to hear Please whisper softly ïn my ear
