

Reality & Dreams

Morandi

Oh, I can see it in your eyes
I can feel you by my side
Closer and closer
Hope this is not another dream
I hope the game's not over

Oh, when the darkness steals the light
I can feel you in my arms
Closer and closer
Hope that I won't wake up alone
The dream is still not over

So I know that it could be real
The only thing's I need you here
To save me from this lonely night
When I taste the magic of your lips
Between reality and dreams
I feel I'm gonna lose my mind
I'm breaking to pieces inside...
