Call of evil's mastermind Christians flock to the beast Burning crosses burn souls Exterminate the altar of laws Atrocities of a new reich Holy war and holocaust God weeps and turns his back The time is right to destroy the world Damnation Fill the world with plague Force of devastation Tyranny from above Churning of cities lust so profane Driving the will to destroy Crippling powers I'm forced to partake unholy rituals Crimes of a world barely alive Melting debauchery Ashes to ashes, so must I be Lost in this misery There's nothing left here for me I know of no other way Even death cannot change my ways I'm first in the line To hell we shall go Call of evil's mastermind Christians flock to the beast Burning crosses burn souls Time is right to destroy the world
