

Burned at the Stake

Morbid Saint

Fire burning deep inside
Deprives you of your soul
Penetrates, manipulates
As the fire takes its toll

Corpse is black
And burning as you gasp
For your last breath
Make the fire bigger
To insure a certain death

Satan is calling
From the crypts of hell
Blood is boiling
Body starts to swell
End is near, is no other way
Call to Satan
He'll take your life away

Death

Burned at the stake
Your soul will soon arise
Coming back with vengeance
To take their fucking lives

Satan controls
Every fucking breath
He his god in life
And saviour in your death, jesus

Gave us all a choice
You choose to reign in hell
Satan is your master
He casts an evil spell

Gives you an order
For which you have been sworn
Spend a day with Lucifer
In the land of the unborn

Alive and kicking they hunt you night and day
They burned you at the stake
And now they all must pay

Live in fear
You'll never see the day
A soldier sold to Satan
Think, you better pray

Cannot run cannot hide
Flames are taking toll
He has your blood
Has your corpse
Now he'll have your soul

Lost control of your destiny

From freedom you have fell
Rip and shred
The burning flesh
Now you'll burn in hell...
