

Darkness Unseen

Morbid Saint

Hidden in the darkness
in the shadows of the unseen Motionless, soundless
hear a terror filled scream Obliterate, eradicate
the vileness that you abore Timeless, patient stalking life
that's restored to you

Restless merciless demanding your payment due Relentless, punishment racking pain on you Paranoid, delusions, of emencing the fear begins Senses, heightened fearing from within you

Looking eyes that never see any movement in the night Running from total darkness only living to see the light Forgotten souls never rest in the kingdom of the damned As their lives slowly pass through your fingers like grains of sand

Darkness, unseen
Terror filled scream
Endless, torture
Please god no more

Hidden in the darkness
Motionless, soundless
Obliterate, eradicate
the vileness that you abore
Timeless, patient stalking life
that's restored to you

Don't care to know the battles you'll face Rather live today
Then caught in the race Trying to be someone that you don't like Standards of society an oppression we can fight

Darkness, unseen
Please god no more
