

Sign of the Times

Morbid Saint

I've seent he world crumbling all around it smothers me and is holding me down can't express that which is real censoring you and the way we feel

It's not the words that killt he millions dead it's megaton bombs going with fucked up heads Take a look at yourself get your priorities straight think about saving the world before it's too late

Environmental homicide hear it scream when it dies
You can't hear their cries they can't run or hide compromise your self with lies tell me why

Power, freedom something you to express Can't put me down step on me like the rest fuck you ass hole I'll tell youwhat to do make it vulgar ram it down in your face

Take a look at yourself get your priorities straight just about saving the world before it is too late You think you have power but we're the ones who rule the world you think that you are so fucking smart and we're all fools we're not

I've seent he world crumbling all around
can't express that which is real

I'll tell you one I'll tell you twice I've got no time for you hear my statement loud and clear don't make me spell it out for you I'll tell you once I'll tell you twice I've got no time for you don't tell me there is no hope to start a life renewed
