Locked in a cage, by yourself Downtrodden rage, Breeds poor health Make an excuse, then duck out It's self induced, knuckle back Try to get off, go somewhere Dying for love, way out there

If you want to escape this living hell Cast off your chains and be free
If you don't believe you owe it to yourself,
You can owe it to me
Owe it to me

Wipe of the dust, Let it shine You can adjust, given time Ready to leave, you show up You got a grief Come grow up

If you want to escape this living hell Cast off your chains and be free If you don't believe you owe it to yourself, You can owe it to me

If you want to escape this living hell Cast off your chains and be free
If you don't believe you owe it to yourself,
You can owe it to me

I'm here to help, you decline
Want to rebel, by design
Cut off your nose, to spite your face
Superimpose you r disgrace

If you want to escape this living hell Cast off your chains and be free If you don't believe you owe it to yourself, You can owe it to me

If you want to escape this living hell Cast off your chains and be free
If you don't believe you owe it to yourself,
You can owe it to me

I'll find a way to lead you astray,
Just a little longer
I'll find a way to lead you astray,
Stay a little longer

I'll find a way to lead you astray,
Just a little longer
I'll find a way to lead you astray,
Stay a little longer

Yeah, you can owe it to me, you can owe it to me,
You can owe it to me, you can owe it to me
