Self Made Man

Morcheeba

Sun shines
They must've made the hay
Hey, make the hay
Got mounting bills
You need to pay
No time to play

There's no such thing As a self made man 'Cause everyone Needs a helping hand

There's no such thing As a self made man Enjoy the floors In the best laid plans

Though sacrifices all the way All along the way Indulge in vices so cliche Shame it's so cliche

There's no such thing As a self made man It's not too hard To understand

There's no such thing As a self made man Enjoy the floors In the best laid plans

Now, all your friends Have flown away Flown, flown away You blew your chances All away Blown, blown away

There's no such thing As a self made man 'Cause everyone Needs a helping hand

There's no such thing
As a self made man
Enjoy the floors
In the best laid plans

No such thing as A self made man No such thing as A self made man
