

Sometimes

More Than Life

... And spread your days away from me
The way I hold myself,
I can't make the change that you wanted me.
Too much, placed in time, drawn myself away
For being happy, I can't take, if you want...
You have to give away!
Lost more than I can ever
More than everything
You have to give away!

You probably want this to be
...You cannot be
Lost on the longer way
Until you speak my name!
That's probably another one!

Started in my old way
I swear I'll be here at once!
Your baby brought some before
And I can't go through
With what you want me to, I'm...
Just I cannot make it
To say them words right!

Even though the season change
Will you stay the same?
Even though the season change
Will you stay the same?

Left through with what you saw in me
The way, the person I could have been
Lost through the other way!
Lost through the other way!

Kill the tide inside your hearts
Killed your voice, I felt your broken hand
Kill... And everything we ever shine
I loved you more than life,
But you're carrying yourself!

I loved you more than life,
But you carried yourself
I loved you more than life,
But you carried yourself
I loved you more than life,
But you carried yourself
