

Against The World

Morgan Page

I guess it's just me and you for now
Against the world, against the world
Me and you for now
Against the world, against the world

I never give away our trust
I never give away our secrets
I never give away too much
Hearts beat hush when touched by demons

Life's that quick
They wanna start shit
Speak too soon before they know you
And all day night understand
But until they do

I guess it's just me and you for now
Against the world, against the world
Me and you for now
Against the world, against the world

Don't ever say it hurts too much
Don't ever say it hurts too feel this
Don't ever say the pain's too much
What's the point of pain if our love can't heal it?

Life's that quick
They wanna start shit
Speak too soon before they know you
And all day night understand
But until they do

I guess it's just me and you for now
Me and you for now
Against the world, against the world
Against the world, against the world

Yeah, slow down, I don't wanna stop now
What's the point of falling if I don't hit ground
But every single breath is another chance I get
To be close to you, close to you
Yeah, slow down, I don't wanna stop now
What's the point of falling if I don't hit ground
But every single breath is another chance I get
To be close to you, close to you

I guess it's just me and you for now
Against the world, against the world
Me and you for now
Against the world, against the world
