

Emotional Sanctuary

Morgana Lefay

I have found a little hideaway
It's a place not so far away
Like a nest in my mind
Where I rest and sense no time
There I am as much as I can
As an old and crumbled man
And I hide from the pain and sorrow
That I fear

Behind this barrier I can
Just deny all the thoughts
No cause and action (effect/consequence) there at all

An emotional sanctuary
Time has gone too far to turn around
The pain I feel
Will fade away
' cause life goes on
In a colder way
An emotional sanctuary

Like a spider in a web of dreams
I control my sanctuary
And the walls that I've built
Are my lost memories

Cause I'm living in a world of madness
And the only place to heal
Is the place too close for man to find
And feel

Behind this barrier I can
Just deny all the thoughts
No cause and action ) there at all

An emotional sanctuary
Time has gone too far to turn around
The pain I feel
Will fade away
Cause life goes on
In a colder way
An emotional sanctuary
