

Encased In Glass

Morgion

Suspended for all time
To die would be too kind
The end will never come
It can't be done

Dormant sleeping state
Find no way to escape
Animate in a coma of glass
Years go too fast
My soul unites with the world
Eternity's story untold

No site I can't see
Hate to freedom lies in me
Coffin of ice, stone cold
Cage of glass I mold

Encased in glass, perpetual to my blood
The glass takes possession of my soul
To feel a dream is only to me
My prison encased in glass
