

Dictated Deliverance

Morgoth

In times when life is so absurd nobody plays the cure in times when people die these methods are obscure building the new memorial brining the truth of death mishappen creatures warning misery is blessed increasing misconductions these rules to overturn overzealous progression the house of justice burns corruption of the misrule misguided is the peace permanence of destruction security seduce sedition of nuclear waste cast into former days pawnbrokers of the new death early bird of this earth freedom selection
the ultimate day
death wishes you to obey
dictated deliverance
no time to stay
delinquent society
