

Selected Killing

Morgoth

You have no choice between left or right 'cause your own birth was your fate blocking your mind, the truth is so clear a life in hate you get it here it's this disease you now obey no hope or cure it will go it's way captured in a social misery the consciousness now you see kill all the others
make them bleed
feel like a hero
greedy about victory
do the work now
that has to be done
create the pain
the time still runs
blow out their lives
god's on your side, be satisfied when their guts are open wide think about the glory
you soon will get
it doesn't matter
that others pay
take it into your hand
time to get cruel
for that you stand
slicing the flesh
practice selected killing looking in the face of death quit your life in blood you rest - violent world
you know
death comes for sure
and slow
the end is there
you soon regret
a wasted life
and horrible death
you rot away in agony
and bounded freedom
that's what you see the other side was too fast for you the same ideas they believe in too an ugly bullet
sticks in your head
it stops right here
now wake up death!
