

Miracle

Moriah Peters

Here's a simple melody to tell a simple story
About a girl always incomplete
All because I let the world take my heart
It came back broken apart
My hope was gone, gone till You rescued me

With Your love, love, love
Anything is possible
Love, love, love
I believe in the miracle of love

Sunlight woke me up today, new life covered in grace
All my sins are washed away, I've been redeemed, oh yeah
You called my name and my heart gave in
I came running, left everything for Your hope, for Your joy
For everything You are to me, but most of all

For Your love, love, love
Anything is possible
Love, love, love
I believe in the miracle of love

Love with no boundaries
Came down and found me
Just when I needed it most Can't understand it but all I know is
When hope was lost in came

Love, love, love
Anything is possible
Love, love, love
It's the miracle love
Anything is possible love
Singing in the morning of love
Anything is possible love
Singing forever of Your love
Your miracle love
