

I Will Do

Moriarty

It all started like a joke
Like a needle like a sting
Like a hand around my throat
Boys and girls were dancing in the rain

Woman came from nowhere like a sudden gush of wind
Nobody seen her, nobody knew her
She stepped in the line between the girls holding hands
If that is the game why don't you let me understand

I will do what ever you will do
I will go wherever you will go
I will follow you into the fall
And I will answer to your call

If we had only looked we could have seen
But the woman chose her man for one night only
And whoever she chose was a helpless soul
Like a needle, like a sting couldn't go to any other one

Well in the morning, the boy lay naked in the day
Light there, we knew what we knew we sat down
We danced again, she was back she danced around alone
Like a needle, like a sting, her eyes held me tight

Oh now you know my curse
Darling you're my prey
If you think that you are safe
Then won't you let me say

You will do whatever I will do
You will go wherever I will go
You will follow me into the fall
And you will answer to my call
