

My Own Majesty

Morifade

Once a king to be
A king for all eternity
Deep within my dreams
Where I can make-believe

Within my dreams I'm reaching thrones
As king with inner force
To strike a dome

I am my own - My own majesty
King of all kings
In my land of dreams
I am my own - My own majesty
One with the crown
In a land unseen
Where I am dynasty

I am the righteous one
The choosen one of mighty sons
King within my dreams
Until awakening comes

Within my dreams...

I am my own...
