

Reborn

Morifade

The hope is lost in the glass of time
To say a prayer's in vain
After all nothing will remain
The sins we've made still widen the wounds
A dying legacy
In the breed of new technology

Take us to a place where we can save our souls
From the ashes of the earth into nevermore
Our souls will remain

Fly...we'll reach the sky
Reborn here after
Die...to remain in afterlife
Fly...from here and now
Reborn here after
Die...for a greater paradise

We've lived our lives, now we're left to die
The Armageddon's vague
Will arise with a fiery plague
The end of days lies before us now
We'll reach infinity
Then we'll breed a new mythology
