Revive for Awhile

What once was a dream Now vanished in me All that I've mourned To the memory of thee The love we once shared The light that was there Burned out too quickly In sorrow and despair

I'm nailed from inside A heart that still cry Formed from that day when you died The sadness will stay Grief made my way Into the depths of the dark (Darker than ever, please...)

Save me...I'm frozen and cold Tears keep on falling Like rain from above Save me...the memories take hold Please, hear my pleading "If you could revive for awhile"

Embraced by the pain My pleasure's in vain Since you were gone To heaven now belong If you could revive And stay for awhile Renew what we had Then it wouldn't be that sad Morifade
