

I Like You

Morrissey

Something in you caused me to take a new tack with you You were going through something I had just about scraped through Why do you think I let you get away with the things you say to me?

Could it be I like you?
It's so shameful of me - I like you

No one I ever knew or have spoken to resembles you This is good or bad all depending on my general mood
Why do you think I let you get away
with all the things you say to me?

Could it be I like you?
It's so shameful of me - I like you

Magistrates who spend their lives hiding their mistakes They look at you and I and envy makes them cry Envy makes them cry

Forces of containment
They shove their fat faces into mine
You and I just smile because we're thinking the same line
Why do you think I let you get away
with all the things you say to me?

Could it be I like you?
It's so shameful of me - I like you

You're not right in the head and nor am I, and this is why
You're not right in the head,
and nor am I, and this is why

This is why I like you, I like you, I like you
This is why I like you, I like you, I like you Because you're not right in the head,
and nor am I, and this is why
You're not right in the head,
and nor am I, and this is why
This is why I like you, I like you, I like you...
