

You Must Please Remember

Morrissey

A small boy, big ideas
You must please remember
A long road, with no turn-off
Oh, you must remember

Caught in your headlights
Like a frightened animal
You must remember

Someone cries twice nightly
Of course, I do remember
Someone cries and you think quite rightly so
But you refuse to remember

Caught in your headlights
Like a frightened animal
Oh, you must remember

Oh
Remember, remember
Oh
Remember, remember

Low-lights and long nights
I try hard to not remember
And you too beautiful
I can't look

I've done so very
Many stupid things
It's too late
(Remember)

Oh, oh
Remember, remember
Oh
Remember, remember

Oh
Oh, remember
Oh
Remember, oh
Oh
Oh, remember

Oh
Remember, oh
Oh
Oh, remember, oh
Oh
Remember, oh

Oh
Oh, remember, oh
Oh
Remember, oh
