

So I Betray The Mission

Mortal Love

I forget to tell all the bones in your body the end is near A kiss to bid your heart farewell, there's nothing left of me to sell

I forgive the end for its suffocating hope and fear Before I ever wave goodbye - cross my heart and hope to die

You commit to leave all your love behind without a tear Tomorrow is a different day, another chance to fade away

A million times I'd die for you but even death can be untrue Despite the soul I tore apart, despite the times I drowned my heart

Now I will force my way into the heart
So I betray the mission - fall apart.
