

This Absolution

Mortiis

Need it I don't want it I need it I don't want it

I find it impossible
Just impossible to repent
Living with this unbelievable dissent
Every door is closed to me

The devotion you demand
So incomprehensible to me
The love of God is a love unreal
I can't repent what I can't feel

I don't need this provocation
I don't want this confrontation
You will not grant me salvation
You will not have my devotion
I don't need it need it need it I don't need I need this absolu
