

Brotherhood of Light

Morton

Riding, fighting
All as one - United
Freedom's running through our veins
Thunder, lightning
Weapon and the fighter
Brothers will remain forever

Now you are the acolyte
Take a step into the light
Oath of blood won't fade away
Keep it till your dying day
We're the brotherhood of light
We will never step aside
In this dark forsaken land
We are brothers till the end.

Blades and arrows
Guides of our heroes
Never disobey your sword
See the shadows
Spirits gather here
Bringing death to our foes

Now you are the acolyte
Take a step into the light
Oath of blood won't fade away
Keep it till your dying day
We're the brotherhood of light
We will never step aside
In this dark forsaken land
We are brothers till the end.
