

I've got a long way to go
I'm a traveler in time lost in my soul
I took a shine to the drink and the smoke
I mean the kind that takes me all the way back to my home

I seem to lose my goddamn mind
When I trip in that machine it makes me feel so fine
I know you've seen a change in me
But I know me better 'cuz I know how things can be

I'm a traveler in this cosmic ark
Take these thieves away
Take me light years back to the start

In flames - to the start
