

Lumbo Rock

Mos Generator

The thrill has gone away
But I don't believe it's true
I will come back for you
Feel has left me drained
I'm worn out and beatin'
Been strung out and tweekin'
And nothin' feels the same
So now I set sail for the holiest grail
It's the thrill that's gone away

The thrill has gone away
And all of this time
I lay ruptured and dying
I'm begging you to stay
'Cuz I just need more of the loveliest whore
And nothin' feels the same
So now I set sail for the holiest grail
It's the thrill that's gone away yeah

The thrill is here...to stay
But I believe that you believe
There's nothing left to say
So grab the keys, move with ease
'Cuz words are in the way
The thrill is here...to stay
