

A Different Sky

Mostly Autumn

I'm looking for the sun at the back of your eyes
A long long song but there's no surprise
I'm hanging in the warmth of your natural smile
Scream for daylight from out of the grey

Everything changes
Open the curtains through a different day

Don't go pushing the sunset down
Come back it's a beautiful day
Seen the corner of my eye
Could have been a miracle

I'm dancing with the spirit and falling over
Change the past, well you never know
I'm looking for a world where the future shines
Looking for the day when your heart turns round

Everything changes
You're out on the road under a different sky

Don't go pushing the sunset down
Come back it's a beautiful day
Seen the corner of my eye
Could have been a miracle

Don't go pushing the sunset down
Come back, remember this day
It's just the two of us standing on the sharp edge looking for the runway

Just so far away
Give it to me
Carried away
Carried alone
I'll take you back home

Don't go pushing the sunset down
Come back it's a beautiful day
Seen the corner of my eye
Could have been a miracle

Don't go pushing the sunset down
Come back, remember this day
It's just the two of us standing on the sharp edge looking at t he runway
