

Never The Rainbow

Mostly Autumn

Cross the ocean deep
Wake now from your sleep
Kiss the past goodbye
Don't follow empty skies
Never the rainbow
Striking silver when you're burning for gold
In the soul destruction, your spirit hangs on.
But you keep believing
That it won't be too long.
See the mess we weave
In the battered daze of belief
Screaming with no sound
The whole thing's coming down
Never the rainbow
Striking silver when you're burning for gold
In the soul destruction, your spirit hangs on.
But you keep believing
That it won't be too long
Never the rainbow
Never the rainbow
Never the rainbow
Never the rainbow
