

Silver Glass

Mostly Autumn

Come
Down
It's alright
For an hour or two I will lay here with you by your side

Let Go
Take your rest
And the children laine the path, souvinirs and photographs around your bed

There's a glow underneath
And it's seeping through the dark
Where the mind and the soul
Have no boundary at all
Shining silver glass in a void and cloudless sky

On
Wings
We are one
With the stars as they dissolve into the Universe revolving with the Sun

There's a glow underneath
And it's seeping through the dark
Where the mind and the soul
Have no boundary at all
Shining silver glass in a void and cloudless sky

There's a glow underneath
And it's seeping through the dark
Where the mind and the soul
Have no boundary at all
Shining silver glass in a void and cloudless sky
