

Until The Story Ends

Mostly Autumn

You standing
The ocean a mirror
A black star is rising
It follows the path to your open hands
Into your open arms

The wind blows the laughter
The laughter commands us
Spirits are dancing
Love in your eyes
A miracle
It's a miracle

Until the story ends
To you my love
To you my love

Bound by the water
For in the mist
A rainbow surrounds us
From sunlight that chimes
Behind your eyes
Into my eyes

Until the story ends
To you my love
To you my love

Until the story ends
To you my love
To you my love

Until the story ends
To you my love
To you my love
