Mother Mother

love let my nightmares turn into dreams love let the angels into my sleep love let the spirits fly out of me love let my love inside go free

(ah, ah)

love let my anger turn into peace love let the doves cry out in the streets love let the poison bleed out of me
love let my love inside go free

(oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh) a bloody war behind my eyes i'll call my ride on the other side just close the door and shut the blinds

love let the angels into my sleep
love let my love inside go...

love let my love inside go free

(ah, ah) □
