Ghosting

Mother Mother

I've been ghosting I've been ghosting along Ghost in your house Ghost in your arms When you're tossing When you turn in your sleep It's because I'm ghosting your dreams

And this is why I have decided To pull these old white sheets from my head I'll leave them folded neat and tidy So that you'll know I'm out of hiding

I've been ghosting I've been ghosting alone Ghost in the world Ghost with no home I remember I remember the days When I'd make you oh, so afraid

And this is why I have decided To leave your house and home unhaunted You don't need poltergeist for sidekicks You don't need treats and you don't need tricks

You don't need treats You don't need tricks You don't need no Halloween

You don't need treats You don't need tricks And you don't need me

Hey, would it be so bad if I stayed I'm just a ghost out of his grave And I can't make love in my grave I won't put white into your hair I won't make noises in your stairs I will be kind and I will be sweet If you stop staring straight through me

And this is why I have decided To pull these old white sheets from my head I'll leave them folded neat and tidy So that you'll know I'm out of hiding

And this is why I have decided To leave your house and home unhaunted You don't need poltergeist for sidekicks You don't need treats and you don't need tricks

You don't need treats You don't need tricks You don't need no Halloween

You don't need treats

You don't need tricks You don't need no Hallows Eve

You don't need treats You don't need tricks And you don't need me
