

Jump The Fence

Mother Mother

He was drifting through the badlands
She was living with a bad baddie
He was going for a Grammy
She was going for the leading lady

You were singing in the bath then
And you were butchering the orphan Annie
I came up with a good plan
To leave daddy in the badlands

So we could be
Twolings in a freakshow
And we could make it three with an alien in vitro

So when you jump that fence
Jump that fence
You better run like the wind
Emancipated
When you break your chains
Break your chains
You gotta run like a devil from a flock of angels

We were running from the laymen
We were trying to find a shaman
We were going for immortal
We were going through a portal

So we could be
Twolings in a freak show
And we could make it three with an alien in vitro

So when you jump that fence
Jump that fence
You better run like the wind
Emancipated
When you break your chains
Break your chains
You gotta run like a devil from a flock of angels

Jump that fence
When you jump that fence
You better watch that your pant don't get snagged on it
When you break away
Break away
You gotta run like a lifer in a prison break

So when you jump that fence
Jump that fence
You better run like the wind
Emancipated
When you break your chains
Break your chains
You better run like a devil from the lord and savior

When you jump that fence

When you break away
Break away
You gotta run like a lifer in a prison break

When you jump that fence
Jump that fence
Emancipated
Break your chains

Jump that fence
Jump that fence
Emancipated
When you break your chains
Break your chains
