

Love Stuck

Mother Mother

My feelings ran away
I didn't know how to treat them
Maybe if I believed them they'd have stayed
I hope they're somewhere safe
Living in a daydream
Singing to a song I couldn't play

But if I saw them on the street I'd say,
"My babies come back to me."

Cause I've got my love stuck in my head, in my head
I've got my love stuck in my thoughts, in my thoughts
I've got to keep my love, in my heart
I've got to keep my love, in my heart
I've got my love stuck in my throat, in my throat
I left my love out in the cold, in the cold
I've got to give my love, to my soul
I've got to give my love, to my soul
And let go

My angel flew away
I didn't know how to keep her
Heaven knows I needed her to stay
I hope she spreads her wings
Surfing on a sunbeam
And dancing to a song I couldn't sing

But if I saw her on the street I'd say,
"My baby fly back to me."

Cause I've got my love stuck in my head, in my head
I've got my love stuck in my thoughts, in my thoughts
I've got to keep my love, in my heart
I've got to keep my love, in my heart
I've got my love stuck in my throat, in my throat
I left my love out in the cold, in the cold
I've got to give my love, to my soul
I've got to give my love, to my soul
And let go

And maybe it's just time, it's just time that it takes, it's just time that it takes
But I don't wanna wait, I wanna love again today

My feelings ran away
I didn't know how to feel them

Cause I've got my love stuck in my head, in my head
I've got my stuck in my thoughts, in my thoughts
I've got to keep my love, in my heart
I've got to keep my love, in my heart
I've got my love stuck in my throat, in my throat
I left my love out in the cold, in the cold
I've got to give my love, to my soul
I've got to give my love, to my soul
And let go

I've got to give my love, to my soul
I've got to give my love, to my soul
And let go
