

Just When You Thought We Couldn't Get Any More Emo We Go And Pull

Motionless in White

Alright motherfuckers, listen up loud
Cause there's a new fucking sheriff in town
And if you're with me, put your hands in the air Cause this is a fucking takeover

What's the matter, crybaby? Are you fucking jealous
Or are you just pissed off cause you can't upstage us?
You know we can't be stopped
Your time has just run out

You think you're so fucking tough as if you started the scene
You should stop trying so hard

Maybe if your mind was as open as your mouth, You'd understand that regardless of what anyone wears, looks like, or sings about, we're all the same fucking kids
Fighting for what we believe in
And you can never take that away (bitch!)

Since when did fashion make you part of this crime scene?
Who gives a fuck if I wear makeup and tight jeans?
I cant take anymore
You're all the same with just a different name and different fa ce
You're so caught up with all the bullshit on myspace
I can't take anymore

(Somebody call a tow-truck, cause this is a fucking breakdown!)

Don't ever fuck with our hearts
A knife to the throat will leave more than a scar
Don't ever fuck with our hearts (WOOO!)
A knife to the throat will leave more than a scar

(YOU!) On the count of three (CAN'T!) Come on (KILL!) Everybody now
(WHAT YOU DID NOT CREATE!)

I will bury you
