

The Heart Is A Rebel

Moto boy

Nite after nite I open my eyes
Read between the silver lines, the end

The more I want you
The closer I come
Sting me
Back into your arms
Ooh

You light my fire and you light my wish
I never wanted anything but this, the end

It's a pitch black void when I turn my tricks
My heart catch fire and my nine turn six
It's an answer to what I already knew

The heart is a rebel
Make me see
I'm waiting for the wild
The heart is a rebel
Stay with me
I'm waiting for the wild

Nite after nite I open my eyes
Read between the silver lines, the end

Baby let's pretend it won't be always so hard
Somewhere along the end we'll be back at the start
It will be easier
It will be easier

The heart is a rebel
Make me see
I'm waiting for the wild
The heart is a rebel
Stay with me
I'm waiting for the wild
