

Crumble

Motograter

You will crumble like a leaf
Shattered your viens
And you'll stumble to your knees
And fade away
And it's you who won't believe
You're barely breathin'
And it's you who will deciet
And then fade

Away, then you'll fade
Away, then you'll fade
Away, then you'll fade
When life has lost all meaning to oneself

When the light is going dim
No sight remains
And your peeling off your skin
You can't escape
And it's you who won't believe
There's nothing within
And it's you who will deciet
And then fade

Away, then you'll fade
Away, then you'll fade
Away, then you'll fade
When life has lost all meaning to oneself

It's you won't believe, so die motherfucker
It's you will deciet, so die motherfucker
It's you wants to lie, so die motherfucker
It's you who wants to die, so die motherfucker

Die, die, die, die motherfucker
Die, die, die, die motherfucker
Die, die, die, die motherfucker
Die, die, die, die motherfucker
