

Dead Army

Motorjesus

as you can see i grasp the bullets that surround me as you cant see, slowly life turns into stone in these times when i could not breathe summon the demons that i need hit the gas tryin to not look backward anymore it comes back to you - but can you follow all alone - i deny, i can swear - but i lie still you're the dead army, on this path, where i go hit the ground and i know that you're still casting the shadows do you think i am the alpha male the ultimate sensation i guess i prove you wrong as escaping sort of running with the dice and booze in hand separating good from evil but you've got it in your hands i'm the running man - there's no tomorrow all alone - i deny...

you pray forgiveness, you did it you don't even tried the oath, your promise to never live inside a lie the air you're breathing i'm screaming

as heavens collide
but you never tried...

the dead army - the dead army - the dead army
