It keeps running out of hand
Beneath the crimson skies
Die alone with your back on the ground
Bleed in world's demise

Running onward to termination When it's killing me Running onward into despair So keep on dying on your knees

So run in the fire Everything is everything I am the destroyer Everything, apart from me, is everything

Purgatory awaiting, 600 degrees Hellfire hollowness It's a fuckin' disease

Running onward to termination When it's killing me Waiting, slowly, to rot away So keep on dying on your knees

So run in the fire ...

So you're waiting to crush your soul in two Get down ...!

So keep on dying on your knees

So run in the fire
Everything is everything
I am the destroyer
Everything, apart from me, is everything
I'm the destroyer ...
... is anything ...
