

Ressurrection Man

Motorjesus

a new messiah, in a line of fire welcome to the city of the now infected yeah another maker, knows the undertaker causing double damage for the banished come on the revolution, final retribution on the third day im reborn, to renew it all the holy water, erase the new disorder in darkness there is light along the way if you need him - search inside - to survive there is more - resurrection goin on now you stand up again

to make your way back alive judas betrayer, say your final prayer i will rise and i will become the one a new religion, against the opposition i hide in sanctuary now i need it no more city of sinners, none can ever save us 4 riders come, they appeared - to erase it all all non-believers, and all of my demons you shall be spared no more if you need him, search inside to survive, if you believe in him deicide to survive

there is more... arise again - calling from the dead again

this is the new messiah...

arise again - this is resurrection man understand this fight
