

Hey Jane

Motorpsycho

And when he calls
You'll take the blame
And when he leaves
It'll still feel the same
It hurts me too
The way you try for him
The way you die for him

Fly
Be the silly butterfly
Dance your way across the sky
Shine
Brighter than the summer sun
You know you are the only one

To see you shrink
To see you fade
I don't know
How much more i can take
But you decide
You dream your own lifelie
But why do you kiss it goodbye
