

I am here to guide you, plant the thought inside you here to feed you lines up on stage I am here to school you, feed your head and fool you be your teacher, guru and sage you want the truth, I'll give you mine good, good omens, secret signs and every time you try to steal away like you do, I'll be there to rattle your cage call me rattlesnake
I'm the rattlesnake
call me rattlesnake
I'll decide your fate...

your fathers have all wooed me, thinking they could own me I was always there by their side wherever there's ambition, hunger with a mission I always come along for the ride plenty are the shapes I choose I always play but never lose I only need an inch to take a solid mile and watch you grind your teeth when you smile
call me rattlesnake
I'm the rattlesnake
call me rattlesnake
I'll decide your fate
call me rattlesnake
I'm the rattlesnake
call me rattlesnake
I'll decide your fate...
