

Although my aim is getting poor
And I'm running out of steam
Although this song is sung before

Sha-la-la-la-la-la-la
All the words are true
Sha...
And I feel brand new
Sha...
I hope the truth shines through

And if I should loose my way again
And feel the way I sometimes do
Not be all that I should be

Sha...
All I need is you
Sha...
And your point of view
Sha...
To help me see it through

Cause your such a heavy brew
Clear like morning dew

You support me when I feel so weak and tired
You will catch me when I fall
You will calm me if I'm all up tight and wired See how...

I've been high on a mountain top
I've been deeper than the sea
I've been lost and I've been found
Oh but I do it gladly (oh but I do declare?)

Sha...
Nothing can compare
Sha...
To coming back to you
Sha...
And to see your eyes and see the whole SNAFU

Cause your such a heavy brew
Clear like mountain dew

It's my SNAFU (6x)
