

Grave Robbers

Mount Eerie

Change your way of limping around the world
cause you know what will come soon a real broken leg
and you know this will come true you can not get away

Day light dawned in evening
around the world
and you know what will come too do I have to say?
everybody will eat you
everybody robs graves

And out ghosts stay forever confined in wherever we haunt and hopelessly want to...
...but can not get away
and our bones do blow away in pink light
