

My Burning

Mount Eerie

flame, beyond flame, beyond flame reaching out to wrap around my reaching arm

that's how life got to be around my friends

I wanted her so bad
i waited around in our burning down house through the phone

totally scolded and scarred I woke up in a pile of ash and grath, beyond grath, beyond grath reaching out to horizons on all sides that's how life was among my friends

as revenge for my burning I burned the whole world and was warm for a little bit
