O My Heart

Mount Eerie

what i find will be found easily and only when i'm not looking for it without looking for the morning in the sunset and it's like this and my will to live hides implied in my heart beating without looking for fufillment but just accepting it

oh whats this is this my heart
and is it thumping?
oh my heart
oh there you are
i stopped hunting
i thought you would be as big as a whale my nets were knit
my heart burns on
i had my ship sailed
and oh my heart
there you are
? in my hair
stowed away

oh sleepy heart what do you say? should we keep thumping?
